

In criminals we trust

Pagan Americans have exterminated more than 61 million of our progeny because it would interfere with our life, liberty and pursuit of happiness! Losing totally a sense of evil, we have become what we refused to see and are now ruled by those who are. Fitting justice, as evil always destroys and never restores. Destroying our unborn we destroyed the values that would have saved them and our nation. Too late the lament about those now in power, in the firm grip of evil, the nation, fatally divided, is in its final stage; terminal, doomed and dying. An apathetic citizenry has accepted the decriminalized extermination of innocent defenseless human lives for political and financial gain. Historically, no nation ever survived with “In criminals we trust.” “In God We Trust” made America who we once were and are no longer. SCOTUS ruled America could be “pro-choice” and we proceeded to become serial killers of our own! Nothing spiritually or politically is changing the outcome, church and state adamantly refusing to save the unborn, will not save the rest of us. A pagan nation with pagan (criminal) leaders will reap the whirlwind! President Trump is a voice crying in the wilderness of hardened hearts, and his, the only true voice for our unborn among the many voices who are not. He alone will not save us, we who refused to save our own. Evil is never a virtue and never yields prosperity.
